<sup>1</sup> There are no language requirements for the Immigration, Refugee, and Citizenship Law Moot. This information is used to assist with pairing teams for oral rounds and considering interpretation services needs.

By filling out and submitting this form to the Organizing Committee of the Immigration, Refugee, and Citizenship Law Moot (“the Moot”), each mooter agrees, in accordance with the Rules of the Moot, that information regarding their participation in the Moot, including their name, law school, written material, results, photographs, and other recordings, may be published by the Moot and that all rights with respect to facts submitted for the Moot will become the property of the Moot. The Moot reserves the exclusive right to take photos, or make audio-/video-recordings of any part of any round. By filling out and submitting this form and participating in the Moot, all mooters consent to the recording and broadcasting of their oral arguments and to the reproduction of any photographs taken. Should a mooter wish not to have their name or image publicized, the mooter may make a request to the Organizing Committee that the Moot not publicize their name or image. Such requests should be made as soon as possible, and no later than by the deadline set by the Organizing Committee and communicated to mooters.
